

Roehampton has moved up two places in the Complete University Guide 2022, and is now the top-ranked London post-1992 university.

Roehampton's biggest improvement is in the Student Satisfaction measure, moving up 13 places, the second consecutive year it has seen a significant improvement in this measure.

A range of subjects are performed well, featuring in the top two quartiles in the country on a number of measures. Some of the highlights include:

#1

Law is ranked number 1 in the UK for student satisfaction

#2

Education is ranked number 2 in London overall, and has now been in the top 2 in London for three years running

Classics, English, Nutrition, History, Linguistics and Theology and Religious Studies are in the first quartile of all institutions for Student Satisfaction.

Education and Sports Sciences are in the first quartile for Graduate Outcomes.

Drama, Dance and Cinematics (film), Education and Law are all in the second quartile of all institutions on Overall Score.

Drama, Dance and Cinematics (film) is in the first quartile for Research Quality

Anthropology, Counselling and Psychotherapy are in the first quartile for Research Intensity

For more information and to view the full league table, please visit the Complete University Guide 2022 website.